

Kalix site history

History summary

Station name	Kalix
Country	Sweden
Latitude of measuring point	65.7
Longitude of	23.1

measuring point
Datum reference	All data are to LHS
Time reference	Unknown
Contributor	Swedish Meteorological and Hydrological Institute
Instrument type	Stilling well with digital data logger (Vaisala MAWS)
Site of measuring point	The tide gauge is located on the island Storön in the Bothnian Bay, just outside Kalix, see the maps below. The photo shows the tide gauge station installed in August 1974.
Observational periods	1974 onwards

Benchmark descriptions

LHS = Observed sea level m (Local Height System)
LHS = 7.992 m above RH00 (Land Survey Datum)
LHS = 7.955 m above RH70 (Land Survey Datum)
LHS = 7.883 m above RH2000 (Land Survey Datum)

Data quality

The primary data channel has been screened and quality controlled using the Swedish Meteorological and Hydrological Institute (SMHI) procedures and standards.
