

Fig. 1. Bathymetry of West of Shetland survey area. Contour interval is 100 m. Irregular bold outline shows area licenced for hydrocarbon exploration and forming the study area.

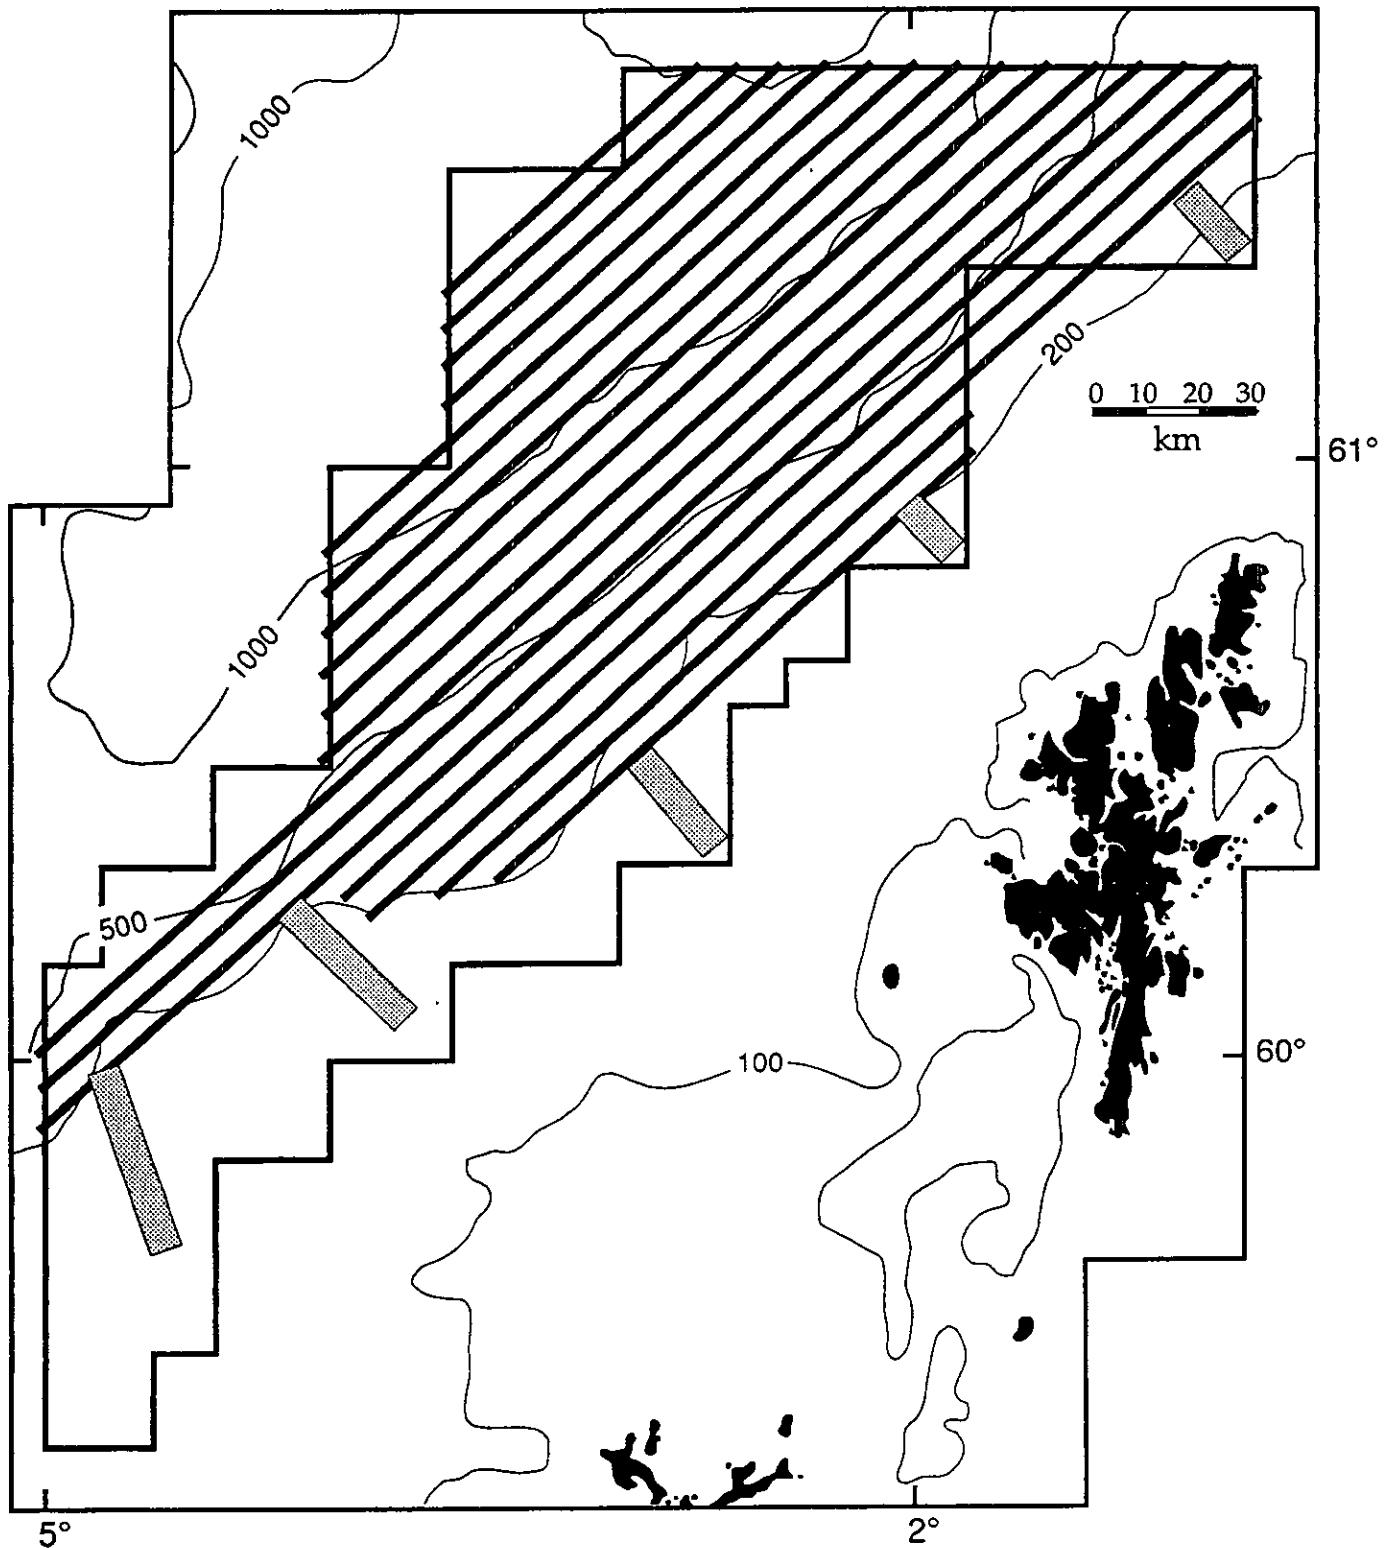

Fig. 2. Proposed survey plan, showing idealised TOBI survey tracks (bold lines) and potential area that could be covered with a 100 kHz sidescan system (shaded rectangles).