

Chart1, showing the standard sections (red lines – red stars indicate stations) along which CTD observations, water and plankton samples are acquired. Start and end stations on each section are indicated.