

F.R.S. SCOTIA CRUISE 10 17 SEPT. - 5 OCT. 1988

F.R.S. SCOTIA CRUISE 10 22 - 23 SEPTEMBER 1988

The first part of the report deals with the general situation in the country. It is noted that the economy is still in a state of depression, and that the government is facing a serious financial crisis. The report also mentions the political situation, which is described as unstable.

The second part of the report discusses the social conditions. It is noted that the population is suffering from widespread poverty and unemployment. The report also mentions the state of the education system, which is described as inadequate.

The third part of the report deals with the foreign relations of the country. It is noted that the country is still isolated, and that it is facing a difficult international situation. The report also mentions the role of the United Nations in the country's affairs.

The fourth part of the report discusses the internal security of the country. It is noted that there is a serious threat to the stability of the country, and that the government is facing a difficult task in maintaining order.

The fifth part of the report deals with the future prospects of the country. It is noted that the country has a long way to go, and that it needs to undertake a series of reforms in order to achieve economic and social progress.

THE SECRETARY OF STATE
 DEPARTMENT OF STATE
 WASHINGTON, D. C.

F.R.S. SCOTIA CRUISE 10 17 SEPT. - 5 OCT. 1988

